

Fine Arts

Why Fine Arts?

The Fine Arts Program at MCC invites students to explore the potential of a creative life. Those enrolled in the program will receive the mentorship, vocabulary and skills necessary to succeed within the creative economy and its countless configurations, contexts and careers.

To enable transfer, the Fine Arts degree program has been carefully planned and designed to provide students the essential skills and knowledge they would accrue while enrolled within the first two years of a four-year degree program. Diligent Fine Arts students at MCC will not only transfer easily into advanced degree programs, they will succeed with distinction having been trained with a strong foundation in the arts.

The Fine Arts Program focuses on creative practice, problem setting, tangential research, play, articulation and exhibition. Students who champion these tenets of a creative practice will be best prepared to offer considerable contributions to their industries, cultures and contexts.

Program Modality

Students have the option to complete the degree fully on campus, fully online or using a hybrid of both.

Program Outcomes

Students who graduate from this program will:

- Apply the skills, tools and vocabulary of their chosen discipline in order to create work that exhibits technical ability, substance and artistic distinction
- Articulate ideas, formulate arguments, question assumptions and demonstrate the ability to evaluate and interpret information through both written and visual mediums
- Collaborate with peers and professionals in the arts, thereby broadening their body of knowledge while developing a personal identity as an artist
- Demonstrate an awareness of global, historical, cultural, philosophical and contemporary contexts, as well as the relationship between the artist and their community
